

The Best Scripture Memorization Apps

Scripture Typer

- available on iPhone, iPad, Android, Kindle Fire, AND www.scripturetyper.com

They say that writing things down is the best way to remember them. This app has several levels for memorization:

1. Type the scripture while you read along
2. Fill in missing words as your read through the scripture
3. Write out the scripture from memory.

A really good app to jump into memorization for the first time. And it's FREE.

Remember Me

- for Android

Flashcards, puzzles, and more to help you internalize scripture. You can quiz yourself, set reminders to appear daily, and more. A really great option for Android users. And it's FREE.

Fighter Verses

- for iPhone, iPad, & Android

If you don't know where to start, this app offers a several suggested lists of scriptures to begin memorize. It does cost you three bucks, but it's a great way to begin if you just aren't sure where to start but want to take that first step.

Memorize Anything

- for iPhone & iPad

This free app isn't specifically designed for scripture, but it taps into the power of actually listening to yourself reading the scripture you're trying to memorize. The interweb is raving about this app, so give it a try.